

CANCELLATIONS:

Lessons cancelled with advance notice will be rescheduled if possible. If we are unable to reschedule then you will not be billed for the missed lesson. If I do not receive advance notice of a cancellation (except in emergency situations) you will be charged for the missed lesson. Email musicwithkristi@gmail.com or text 425-941-8285 if you need to cancel or reschedule a lesson.

ILLNESS:

Please keep sick students at home. There is never a charge for lessons missed due to illness, and it's better for all involved to let a sick student rest and recover and just pick up lessons again the following week. Thank you for respecting this policy as it helps support a healthy studio (and a healthy teacher)! If a student is sick but really wants some new material, we can arrange for a Skype or FaceTime lesson.

MATERIALS:

All students will be given a spiral notebook. This will be used as an assignment/practice book and needs to be brought to every lesson. The instructor will purchase all lesson books and additional materials and bill the student for them in the monthly invoice.

PARENTS OBSERVING LESSONS:

Parents who wish to observe lessons are welcome.

PAYMENT:

Lessons will be billed at the end of each month based on how many lessons the student had during the month. Invoices will be emailed along with information about any upcoming studio closures and student progress. Checks should be made payable to Kristi Szilak. I can also take PayPal & Venmo.

PERFORMANCES:

Performance opportunities will occur throughout the year. These will be held at local venues with a formal final recital held at the end of the school year. Performances are completely optional.

PRACTICE:

It is in the best interest of all involved that students practice. If there is a consistent lack of practice I will communicate these concerns to the student and parent. If necessary, a meeting will be arranged to discuss the situation. In rare cases I may ask that a student discontinue lessons either temporarily or permanently.

PREPARATION:

Students must bring all necessary books to every lesson.
